

SCAVENGER HUNT

Rules

Participants must be age 6 to 16

Participants must attend a Step Xplosion performance or workshop.

Scavenger Hunts should be printed out and can be submitted at any Step Xplosion event. All correctly complete scavenger hunts win a gift from Step Afrika!

One correctly completed scavenger hunt will be drawn at each Step Xplosion event to win 2 tickets to Step Afrika!'s Magical Musical Holiday Step Show, December 14 to 30 at the Atlas Performing Arts Center

One grand prize drawn from all correctly completed scavenger hunts to win a Step Afrika! Step Shop Workshop for winner's class at school. (To be scheduled through Step Afrika! during the 2017/2018 school year).

Questions 1 to 8 can be answered using the internet. Remember to ask a parent/guardian for permission and/or help when going online. Question 9 can be answered at any Step Xplosion performance. Question 10 requires you to participate in a percussive experience in your community. Remember to ask your parent/guardian for permission and/or to accompany you.

Step Afrika! will determine whether each Scavenger Hunt has been correctly completed. All decisions by Step Afrika! are final.

By submitting an entry to the Scavenger Hunt you agree to all rules outlined above.

Participant Information

Name: _____

Age: _____

School: _____

Parent/Guardian Name: _____

Parent/Guardian Contact Email: _____

State: _____ Zip Code: _____

SCAVENGER HUNT

Questions

Washington DC dance and percussive traditions

1. Chuck Brown is known as the father of GoGo. Who was his long-time drummer and collaborator with the Soul Searchers?

2. In addition to Step Afrika! there are more than 90 dance companies in the DMV. Name one of them? What style of dance do they perform? Is this a percussive dance style?

Dance Company Name: _____

Style of Dance: _____ Percussive Dance Style: Yes / No

Stepping and College

3. Howard University is one of the most famous Historically Black College and Universities (HBCUs) in the country. Name 2 more HBCUs in DC, MD or VA?

1. _____

2. _____

4. Stepping was created by African American college students who were members of fraternities and sororities. Name the 5 "Divine Nine" fraternities and sororities that were founded on the campus of Howard University in DC?

1. _____

2. _____

3. _____

4. _____

5. _____

5. Step Afrika!'s Founder, C. Brian Williams, is a member of which fraternity?

6. All of Step Afrika!'s artists attended college. Name one artist, the college or university they attended and their major?

Artist Name: _____

College/University: _____

Major: _____

Stepping and African dance

7. Stepping is a percussive dance tradition. Name another form of percussive dance and its country of origin?

Percussive Dance: _____

Country of Origin: _____

8. There are many different types of African drum. Name one? Which country does it originate from?

Drum: _____

Country of Origin: _____

9. Listen carefully to Step Afrika!'s artists at your Step Xplosion performance. What are the 3 values Step Afrika! highlights as necessary for success in stepping, college and life?

1. _____

2. _____

3. _____

10. Drums are played all over DC. Take a photo of yourself with a drummer or group of drummers playing in DC. Hint! look for bucket drummers on DC street corners, find a drum circle in your neighborhood or watch for the drummers at Step Xplosion events. (You can bring a print or show your image to Step Afrika! on a phone or tablet at a Step Xplosion event. As always, be sure to get permission from your parent or guardian).